Making Business Leaders Community Leaders Since 1905

July 26: Stephanie D. Neely - Treasurer, City of Chicago

Stephanie Neely, Treasurer for the City of Chicago, is a native Chicagoan. The daughter of an entrepreneur who owned and operated a successful chain of gas stations located on the Southside of Chicago, Stephanie has a strong commitment to the city's civic and financial well-being.

As the City's banker, Stephanie manages a $7 billion portfolio and tracks the balances on all City accounts. During her time in office she has streamlined the office, reinvented programs and achieved double-digit returns on pension fund investments. She serves as trustee on the City's five public pension boards.

Her innovative programs include Small Business Development Loans, Financial Literacy programs in Chicago Public Schools and free seminars on using Social Media to build small business.

Stephanie has served as Treasurer for the City since December 2006, and was re-elected to a second term in February 2011. Previously she was Vice President at Northern Trust Global Investments.

Stephanie earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from Smith College, and a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Chicago.

Where to park: Either DuSable Harbor Parking

Lot or East Monroe Garage. If DuSable: As you approach the turnaround area from Randolph Street you will see signs indicating where to go for "DuSable Harbor Parking" follow these. If you are in the turnaround at Columbia Yacht Club, turn right as though you were going up the ramp to go across the river. You will see a sign for DuSable Harbor Parking, take that slight left and follow the ramp DOWN to the booth and gate. Be certain to hook the tag to your rear view mirror when you leave your car or you could get towed away at substantial cost.

If East Monroe: the vehicle entrance to the East Monroe Street Garage is on Columbus Street, just east of Michigan Avenue and just south of E. Randolph Street. Parking rates are $16 - 0 to 12 hours. When entering the ramp go "EAST" towards lake and after passing through the ticket lanes go to the Northeast corner which is parking section 172. Park, use Randolph Street exit doors. NOTE: Before the high-rise on the left, look for stairs on the right that will take you to the lower level. Then follow the trail East to DuSable Harbor. Columbia Yacht Club (THE BIG SHIP).

Clothing: Casual. Remember that it's always cooler on the lake, please bring a light jacket and wear non-scuffing non-black soled shoes if sailing.

Special thanks to the International Yachting Fellowship of Rotarians, Phill Klein, Commodore.
